

THE TRANSPERSONAL UNFOLDING
Second Transpersonal Residential Weekend.
Friday March 12th to Sunday March 14th 2010

To be held at Charney Manor, Charney Bassett, near Wantage, Oxfordshire OX12 OEJ.

Dear Friends,

Once again Transpersonal Perspectives is inviting you to a weekend in the country!

Our theme for the weekend is:-

"The Transpersonal Unfolding".

We offer you time to explore how "the self" yearns for the "The Self" and how "The Self" calls to the "the self".

The weekend begins on Friday evening with a meal and then a gathering together to listen to a talk, followed by an opportunity to prepare for dreaming. On Saturday there will be workshops to sign up to, time to dip in and out of a variety of activities, and story telling after dinner. On Sunday we begin the process of moving into the world again with a talk and a whole group activity.

The Residential runs from Friday afternoon until Sunday 4.00pm.. All meals are included in the cost as well as coffee and tea. We ask that you commit to the whole weekend. If you wish, you can leave after lunch on Sunday

As you know, workshop leaders gift their time and expertise, and because of this we are able to offer a superb programme in a lovely setting for a very reasonable cost. In fact we have been able to offer this weekend at the same price as the one in 2008!

I have enclosed two booking forms in case you wish to pass this information on. Of course, priority will be given to existing Perspectives members, but we always like to welcome new friends and it is an opportunity to invite a partner or friend, sister or brother, to come with you to this event.

Places are limited so it will be on a first come first served basis. There are some single rooms and the shared rooms are very spacious. All rooms are en-suite. I do my very best to accommodate everyone and last time I walked round the rooms and chose them on a personal basis.

We had a wonderful weekend two years ago and I know that this one will be equally exciting. So I do hope you will join us.

Love to all, Dorothy.
